Clause 22 of the Scheme for the regulation of the Exhall Educational Foundation: Application of Income

Subject to payment of the expenses aforesaid the Trustees shall apply the income of the Charity in advancing the education (including social and physical training) of persons under the age of 25 years who are resident, or who have a parent or parents resident, in the area of the ancient Parish of Exhall and who in the opinion of the Trustees are in need of financial assistance in one or more of the following ways or in such other ways as the Trustees think fit:

1. In awarding to such persons exhibitions or grants tenable at any secondary school, college of education, university or other institution of further education as the Trustees think fit;
2. In providing financial assistance, outfits, clothing, tools, instruments, books or other equipment to enable such persons on leaving school, university or any other educational establishment to prepare for or to enter a profession, trade or calling;
3. In providing financial assistance for such persons to study music or other arts or to travel to further their education;
4. In providing such special benefits of any kind but normally provided by the local education authority for any school in the said area or substantially serving such persons as may from time to time be agreed by the Trustees after consultation with the local education authority concerned.
